

At the initiative of the Educational and Cultural Center “Hayartun” at the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia, on 14 May the presentation of the newly created vocal-instrumental ensemble took place. Musician Vladimir Asaturov, the organizer and experienced leader of “Napertskali”, “Imedi”, “Gazapkhuli” and other Georgian ensembles by calling the blood has set a goal to create under the auspices of the "Hayartun" Center a vocal and instrumental ensemble. He introduced the goal of the ensemble, the activities, the direction, types of musical instruments and prospects for the future.

13-16-year-old students from the different schools of the capital are united in the ensemble. Fortunately, two guys will learn to play each musical instrument, thus reserve personnel will be prepared. Dantes Vardanyan and David Kharatian will learn to play the percussion instruments; Gary Amirkhanyan and Alexander Saroyan will deepen their guitar playing knowledge, and Eduard Zalinyan will accompany on the piano. Classes will be held three times a week. The first class took place today, after the presentation.
