

The initiative to visit Armenian-populated regions and to organize spiritual and cultural events in local churches has become a tradition in the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia

This time the place to visit was Shahumian settlement in Marneuli region

On the 15th of June the Head of the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia, His Grace Bishop Vazgen Mirzakhanyan accompanied with creative groups of the “Hayartun” Center of the Diocese made a pilgrimage from Tbilisi to Shahumian. The schoolmaster of the local public school Artyush Urumyan, Edward Gasparyan, elected from Shahumian village to Marneuli regional council, and others welcomed the visitors.

In the morning at Surb Asvatsatsin Church (of Blessed Virgin Mary) in Shahumian settlement, which was built in the first half of the 19th century, the Divine Liturgy was served. Spiritual shepherd of the Armenian communities in Marneuli region, Priest Movses Ashuryan conducted the service.

At the end of the Liturgy the Head of the Diocese delivered a sermon. Bishop Vazgen Mirzakhanyan urged the community members to continue the preservation of the Christian and folk traditions in the community. In his sermon he mentioned that the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Holy Church on the 15th of June celebrates the Feast of Discovery of Relics of Saint Gregory the Illuminator. The Head of the Diocese explained to believers that Right Hand of St. Gregory the Illuminator, kept at Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, is a venerated relic of the Armenian Church, which is used to bless the Holy Chrism ( ), and like all Armenian Churches the Divine Liturgy in connection with the holiday was also served at the local church.

Muron

After the religious ceremony a cultural event featuring solo performers and dance ensemble "A
